GALVESTON GLORIOUS

In Music and Banners, and Pomp and Grand Parade, Over the Safe Arrival at that Port of the Good Steamer City of Mexico, Bearing General Grant. 建筑地位的

The Day wholly Given up to Henoring the Distinguished Guest-The Scenes from the Moment of Debarkation Until he is Safe within the Hotel Parlors.

GALVESTON, March 23,-The wildest excitement prevailed here at the welcome in-telligence that the long looked-for steamer City of Mexico, with General Grant and party on board, was in eight. Crowds flocked to the wharves, and the waters of the harbor presented a bustling sight, being COVERED WITH CRAFTS of every description. As the City of Mexico passed on toward the place of anchorage she was greeted by deafening cheers and a thundering salute from the battery of artillery. The well known form of GENERAL GRANT was recognized as he stood on the after-deck, bowing acknowledgments to the demonstrations of welcome showered upon him by all classes of people. The shipping of the harbor brought out their bunting and made a handsome display of flags, and every tugboat lent its steam-whistle voice to swell the cheer. The general and party were met at the pier by the MAYOR AND ALL THE PROMINENT OFFICIALS of this city, and by General Ord, who had come here especially to meet him. The procession formed in the following order and escorted the party to the hotel: German band, Galveston artillery company, Washington Guards, Lincoln Guards (colored), Mysterious Ten and Sons of Jerusalem (both colored), benevolent societies, carriages containing General Grant, General Sheridan, General Ord and Mayor Leonard, the committee in backs, carriages containing the ladies of the party, Cadet band (colored), and the various fire companies of the city. On arrival at the hotel, a REVIEW TOOK PLACE, and the general retired to the parlor, where a reception took place, a large number of ladies and gentlemen being presented. The banquet which was to be given to-night has been postponed until to-morrow evening at eight o'clock, owing to the delay in arrival. The city is gay with bunting, flags are flying from all the principal buildings, and the streets are thronged with people.

UNDER instructions from the State Compirolle I desire to call your attention to the late dec sion of the Sunreme Court in the case of the Stat et al. vs. Martha W. Duncan. In this case it we held that the State's lien for taxes could be enforce by bills flied in the Chancery Court; that the equity of redemption would be baried, and that purchases would acquire valid titles to real estate sold under these proceedings. In accordance with the terms the decree in this case. I will issue certificates of re demption to parties who settle before the filling of bill against their prope ty, upon the payment of the original tax with interest since the da'e of tax-sale together with the Clerk's and Collector's fees,

On the 15th of April Next. On the 15th of April Next, will commence to fite bil's against all delin roperty not redeemed by that date. To ave greinse to the taxpayer that will be incurred ling of such bills, I have tried as far I could t alling of such bills, I have tried as far I could to gipersonal notice to parties who are interested in the delinquent list, and I will continue to do so until it date above named (April 15th), but owing to the number of delinquents it will be impossible for a to be so notified. In view of this I would unge up property-owners the necessity of calling at once the office, to see it anything appears upon the tabooks against them. Respectfully.
